
New Exhibit

"More Than Homemakers: Stella Fleshmon and the Women Who Influenced a Generation of Carver Students"

Known as "the principal's wife," Stella Fleshmon was the head of the Homemaking Department at Carver for the school's entire 20-year history. Her mentorship of younger teachers and stern demeanor left their marks on many students.

COMING THIS FALL

Our Documentary

CITIZENS ALL: A History of the George Washington Carver Regional High School

WATCH the preview at www.carver4cm.org (on the home page)

HOURS:

Fridays, 11am - 4pm
and by appointment
(540) 270-3891

Carver 4 - County Museum

J. Hubert Jackson (Class of '61)
Muralist

9432 James Madison Hwy, #102
Rapidan, VA 22733-1762
www.carver4cm.org
carver4cm@gmail.com

We are an IRS 501(c)3
nonprofit corporation

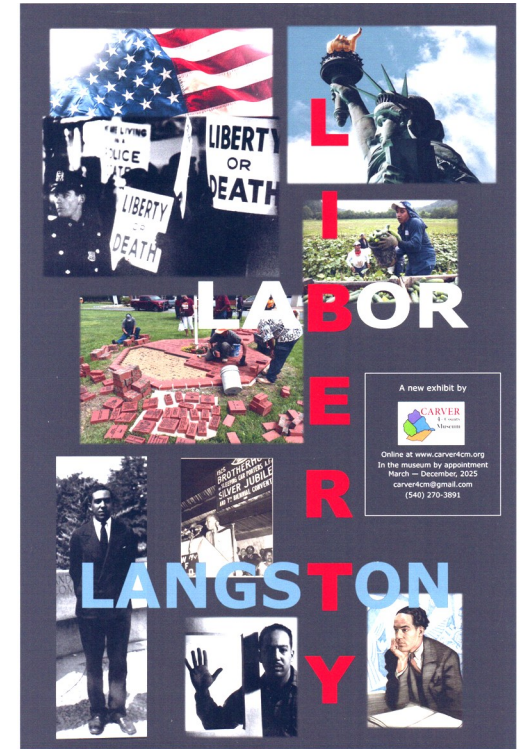

Our Values
Citizenship * Stewardship *
Partnership

Our Mission is to document, celebrate and share the educational, social, cultural, military history, and accomplishments of students, their parents, faculty, administrators, and supporters of George Washington Carver Regional High School, and, in the context of the development of high school education for minorities in the Commonwealth of Virginia, to study, exhibit, and discuss the origins and evolution of this school, the first and only institution of secondary education built in this state for minority students serving 4 counties (Madison, Orange, Rappahannock, and Culpeper, and independent towns within) from 1948-1968.

Above: Congressman Eugene Vindman (VA-07) and his staff member, Marc Roubardin (far left), toured the museum

New Exhibit

Above: Cavalry detail of our U.S. Colored Troops traveling exhibit